

August

2023

Mountain Amateur Radio Club

100 Years Ago

Early ham radio operators assembled an array of homemade and manufactured equipment to communicate with each other. In 1923 ham radio operator David Asbury's home station included a Westinghouse RA/DA receiver (on the far right), and a homemade transmitter.

Credit: Radio Telephony for Amateurs, by Charles Stuart Ballantine, David McKay Company, 1923.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
		1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19 North American QSO Party Contests.indd (ncjweb.com)
20	21	22	23	24 MARC Meeting 7:00 pm	25	26
27	28	29	30	31		